In this note we briefly enlist some recent events in memoriam of the 180th anniversary of Nestor Markov a Bulgarian Revival teacher, lexicographer textbooks author and statesman.

In July 2016 (17–31) an exhibition of textbooks, dictionaries and other written materials was organized in the library of the Institute of Mathematics and Informatics at the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences. Most of N. Markovs textbooks in mathematics and physics were exposed including his first textbooks and problem collections of the years 1869 and 1971.

In October 2016 the Haskovo Regional History Museum published a jubilee newspaper devoted to N. Markov’s life and activities.

On November 1st 2016 the Pleven Regional History Museum jointly with the community center “Saglasie 186” opened an exhibition of Bulgarian textbooks of the 19th century featuring a new book related to Nestor Markov [1].

In November (21–25) 2016 an exhibition devoted to Nestor Markov was organized in the central building of the Bulgarian Academy of Sciences.
